Faculty

The faculty at Providence Women's College inspire the students to realise their full potential. They strive hard for the holistic development of the individuals through a wide range of academic, curricular and co-curricular activities

About the College

Principal
Dr. (Sr.) Jaseena Joseph

Providence Women's College, the first Women's Arts and Science College in the Malabar region of Kerala, South India, was established in 1952. Nestled atop the scenic Florican Hill, our college provides the ideal ambience for pursuits in higher education. Managed by the sisters of Apostolic Carmel Congregation we strive ardently for the uplift of women through higher education. We currently offer 15 under-graduate and 7 post-graduate programmes. In addition three of the departments are research centres. The college was re-accredited by the NAAC in 2017 with an A+ and also was awarded the 'College with Potential for Excellence' status by the UGC in 2016.
